Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, ... that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures...

Jesus resurrection

The first fruits of the Kingdom of heaven

“Jesus’s resurrection declares that with this event, the exile is truly over. Sins have been forgiven; the dark powers that stand behind all enslaving political authorities have been defeated; God’s people are rescued ...

God has done what he promised... the resurrection of Jesus means the launching of the new creation. Imagine that picture of exile and restoration being transposed on to the screen of the whole world, the whole of cosmic history.”

Resurrection as the beginning of a new world

"The good news is that the living God is indeed establishing his kingdom on earth as in heaven, through the finished work of Jesus, and is inviting people of all sorts to share not only in the benefits of this kingdom but also in the work through which it will come to its ultimate completion."

Wright, Tom. Simply Good News (p. 164). SPCK.
